

PrintReleaf Partners with PRT Group

Denver, Colorado, USA; November 2017--PrintReleaf has partnered with PRT Group -- a major mailing house and commercial printer based in Italy. Discussing the partnership, PrintReleaf Founder and CEO Jordan Darragh said: "Our partnership with PRT Group marks the further expansion of the PrintReleaf franchise into Europe. The PRT Group will integrate the PrintReleaf API into their proprietary business critical mail software platforms -- MyMailHouse in the United States and PostaPronta, which operates in Italy, France, Spain, The Netherlands, and Japan. We are pleased that the PRT Group recognizes the value and simplicity of our API through which they can easily scale certified paper reforestation."

Also commenting on the partnership, Dario D'Urso, CEO at PRT America Inc, said: "PRT Group is pleased to partner with PrintReleaf and to demonstrate to our customers that we are an environmentally responsible printer and mailer. We are confident that PRT Group customers will see this as a positive step in making the world a greener place."

PRT Group provides solutions to companies in the business communication market, offering a variety of solutions with high technology content and an emphasis on international communication.
